Description: Umoja Village is a local 501(c)3 resource management and advocacy community organization headquartered in Aiken, South Carolina, that connects the underserved and underrepresented to community resources. The organization was founded on June 19, 2020, by Don and Donna Wesby. This year’s Founders Day celebration will be held at the Eudora Farms Safari Park. The celebration will also consist of educational and history presentations, cultural entertainment, games, and other activities. For those wanting to ride the charter bus first-come, first serve, the $25.00 per person fee is a special package exclusively for this celebration, which includes a seat on the chartered bus, the wagon transportation through the drive-thru safari, a container of animal feed, and a $10 food voucher to use with the on-campus food trucks. You are responsible for anything in excess of $10. No change will be given for purchases under $10. NOTE: The park will be open to the general public that day. To see associated fees and all amenities at the park, visit www.eudorafarms.net
